EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114.

Applicant's submission filed on January 27, 2005 has been entered.

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Robert C. Dorr, Reg. No. 27,782, on February 28, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

- In claim 7, line 12, delete “casino bonus game,” and insert --underlying game on the gaming machine,--.
- In claim 7, line 13, delete “know how to”.
- In claim 7, line 14, delete “know how to”.
- In claim 10, line 2, delete “frame” and insert --period--.
- In claim 11, line 2, delete “frame” and insert --period--.
- In claim 12, line 3, delete “frame” and insert --period--.
- In claim 18, line 1, insert --feature-- after “bonus”.
- In claim 19, line 2, insert --feature-- between “bonus” and “animated”.

- Cancel claim 22.
- In claim 25, delete lines 13-15 and insert --the delivered bonus award is independent of the play of the underlying game on the gaming machine.--.
- In claim 28, line 13, delete “know how to”.
- In claim 28, line 15, delete “know how to”.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The instant invention is deemed to be an unobvious improvement over the cited prior art.

The improvement comprising providing a hidden bonus feature in a casino bonus game to further the award to a player in a surprise fashion without providing any instruction on how to play the hidden bonus feature on the face of the machine or in any help instructions for play of the casino bonus game.

In particular, the prior art lacks disclosing, teaching, or fairly suggesting providing a hidden bonus feature in the touch screen to the player in the play of the casino bonus game, the casino bonus game during said play not disclosing information on the gaming machine to the player as to when the hidden bonus feature is provided and how the player is to respond to the hidden bonus feature as similarly recited in independent claims 1, 7, 17, 25, and 28 (Emphasis Added).

The closest prior art, Claypole et al. (G.B. 2,262,642 A), discloses a gaming machine having a secret feature wherein the feature is triggered randomly via a combination of symbols obtained on the reels of the gaming machine. The specific combination and the existence of the secret feature are not indicated on the gaming machine panel at all, however, a non-explanatory sign, such as a light, appears on display screen (15) and would therefore tip off a very experienced player that something special was happening. An award is provided based on a correct sequence of inputs made by the player in the game after the secret feature is triggered.

Lemons, Cherries and Bell Fruit Gum (Mills Mystery Bell) by Bueschel teaches of a mystery slot machine that occasionally pays 3 coins instead of 2, 5 coins instead of 4, and 10 coins instead of 8 and makes the players ask questions about "Why does the machine do this?" "How is it made?" "Will it always work this way?", etc. Although Bueschel may contemplate not disclosing when a bonus is provided (however the player does know a bonus is provided when obtaining the award after pulling the slot machine handle and the reels come to a complete stop), Bueschel does not disclose responding to the hidden bonus feature (bonus award). That is because a response to the bonus is not required to obtain the bonus award.

These statements are not intended to necessarily state all of the reasons for allowance or all the details why the claims are allowed and should not imply that all the reasons for allowance have been set forth.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Scott E. Jones whose telephone number is (571) 272-4438. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Thursday, 6:30 A.M. - 5:00 P.M..
